

Launch campaign of CODENAME 'SANSKRUTI'

Strong Odisha Cultural Connections

1. Temple-Inspired Main Entrance

The most prominent cultural element appears around the main entrance.

Entrance gateway incorporates forms reminiscent of traditional Odia temple architecture.
Presence of a temple structure near the gate immediately establishes a spiritual and cultural identity.
Can be linked to the temple heritage of Odisha, especially the architectural legacy of Puri, Bhubaneswar, and Konark.

Campaign Angle:

"Inspired by the timeless temple traditions of Odisha, every arrival feels like coming home to your roots."

2. Kalinga Architectural Language

Throughout the project:

- Use of earthy sandstone tones.
- Vertical carved patterns.
- Geometric relief work.
- Strong, monumental proportions.

These resemble contemporary interpretations of Kalinga architecture rather than generic modern apartments.

Campaign Angle:

"Designed with echoes of Odisha's legendary Kalinga architecture, reimagined for modern living."

3. Jaali and Craft-Inspired Facade Patterns

The decorative screens and wall textures resemble:

- Stone carving traditions of Odisha.
- Temple lattice work.
- Handcrafted geometric motifs seen in heritage architecture.

Campaign Angle:

"Every pattern tells a story inspired by Odisha's centuries-old craftsmanship."

4. Pattachitra Artwork at Reception

Around the reception area, a large colorful 'Pattachitra' appears that strongly resembles:
This is one of the strongest cultural references.

Campaign Angle:

"Welcomed by the vibrant storytelling traditions of Pattachitra, where art becomes part of everyday living."

5. Jagannath Culture Influence

The spiritual and artistic design language throughout the project can be connected to Jagannath Temple. Even if not directly shown, the visual vocabulary of:

Temple forms, Sacred geometry and Cultural motifs aligns naturally with Jagannath culture.

Campaign Angle:

"Rooted in the values, traditions, and timeless spirit of Jagannath culture."

6. Courtyard-Based Community Living

The large central open spaces evoke:

- Traditional Odia village courtyards.
- Community gatherings.
- Shared cultural celebrations.

This is a subtle but powerful connection.

Campaign Angle:

"Spaces designed to bring families and communities together, just as Odisha's traditional neighborhoods always have."

7. Earth-Toned Material Palette

The project consistently uses:

- Terracotta shades
- Brick textures
- Sandstone colors
- Warm natural materials

These colors are strongly associated with:

- Odisha's temples
- Traditional homes
- Handcrafted art traditions

Campaign Angle:

"Inspired by the colors of Odisha's earth, temples, and craftsmanship."

8. Pavilion Structures Inspired by Traditional Mandaps

Several gazebo-like structures resemble:

- Cultural gathering mandaps
- Festival pavilions
- Traditional ceremonial spaces

Campaign Angle:

"Celebrating the spirit of togetherness that defines Odisha's cultural life."

Elements That Can Add More Explicitly in Scripts

- Pattachitra
- Konark motifs
- Kalinga architecture
- Jagannath culture
- Odissi dance aesthetics
- Silver filigree (Tarakasi)
- Applique craft of Pipili
- Odisha's temple towns
- Traditional courtyards and community life

Strongest Campaign Narrative

"Codename Sanskruti is not merely inspired by Odisha—it is a contemporary expression of Odisha's soul. From temple-inspired architecture and Pattachitra art to community spaces that celebrate togetherness, every detail reflects a lifestyle where heritage and modern luxury coexist."

End call / Outro for Reels

Where the soul of Odisha meets the aspirations of modern living. Welcome to Codename Sanskruti—an experience of true Cultural Luxury.